EXPERIENCE

Content & Communications Lead — Sobel & Associates, Inc., Tacoma, WA

March 2018 – May 2026

- Diagnosed a recurring client error pattern and implemented a QA checkpoint, reducing reprint errors 80–95% (from 2–3/month to roughly 1 every 6–12 months) and cutting associated waste costs.
- Redesigned client tracking system using a color-coded status structure in Excel, improving team-wide visibility into client progress and reducing manual lookup time.
- Restructured content packet format to reduce clutter, increasing newsletter production speed 4x (from 1 per 1–2 hrs to up to 4 per hour) without sacrificing quality.
- Led content development and production for 100+ monthly client newsletters, managing intake through delivery while aligning messaging, layout, and tone to brand and audience standards.
- Became the sole in-office resource for diagnosing hardware failures across 3 printer systems, recognizing early failure signals to prevent downtime before it occurred; maintained a troubleshooting log to support vendor accountability.
- Served as final quality reviewer for all outbound communications and publications; maintained and refined client databases using Google Workspace, Excel, and SQL
- Led personal transition from Microsoft Publisher to Affinity (Canva) during a company-wide software change, preserving existing efficiencies while identifying new ones.

Mathematics Tutor — Sylvan Learning Center, Puyallup, WA

January 2017 – June 2018

- Delivered individualized instruction in mathematics through college-level Multivariable Calculus, evaluating each student's problem-solving approach and adapting strategies to diverse learning styles and academic needs.
- Strengthened students' problem-solving frameworks, improving their confidence and retention.
- Provided cross-subject tutoring in Biology and English as needed, supporting broader academic success.

Office Assistant, Office of the Registrar — Pacific Lutheran University, Tacoma, WA

January 2015 – December 2016

- Maintained accuracy and discretion in handling sensitive university records, working independently with minimal oversight.
- Served as a reliable point of contact across departments, resolving routine issues clearly and efficiently.
- Balanced consistent job responsibilities with a full course load, demonstrating strong self-management and follow-through.
